

OZARK MOUNTAIN HOLIDAY

NOVEMBER 27- DECEMBER 1, 2012

Join Outta Here Travel for this Holiday trip to Branson. Get in the spirit of the season and enjoy some great shows! We leave early in the morning and make our way south. There are frequent breaks stops on the way. Lunch at the Chesapeake Seafood House in Springfield is included as begin our journey. Our dinner stop will be at Lambert's (Home of the "thrown rolls"- sure to fill you up (and then some!) We check in to the Comfort Inn Thousand Hills- which will be our home for the next three nights. Settle in and relax- we have LOTS planned for you in the next couple of days!!

On our first morning in Branson we enjoy breakfast at the hotel and then head to see Clay Cooper's Christmas Show. This is a great variety show- sure to start your day off with some toe-tappin'. Thrill to the white butterfly display at the Butterfly Palace before we go to the matinee performance of Daniel O'Donnell- famous for his smooth delivery and charm. After the show an included dinner at Montana Mike's and then we enjoy the Joseph Sight N' Sound Evening show.

Our next day begins with breakfast at the hotel and then off to Grand Country Square to see the Down Home Country Show featuring Splinter Middleton. This is a great old-fashioned show that you are sure to love! More shopping time at the quaint Branson Mill is next and then all aboard the Branson Show-boat for the Christmas Cruise with dinner. Nobody reminds us more of Christmas than Andy Williams. We spend a "White Christmas" with the crooner this evening before returning to the hotel to relax for the rest of the evening.

Our last day in Branson starts with a hearty breakfast buffet before we depart on the road to St. Louis. Take the optional tram ride in the arch if you are daring! A tour and tasting at the Anheuser Busch Brewery awaits us as well. We check into the Hotel at Our Lady of the Snows Shrine and enjoy dinner at the shrine as well as a tour. After dinner we will do a motor coach tour of the "Way of Lights" Christmas display. Spend a peaceful evening surrounded by the serenity of the Shrine.

The next morning enjoy breakfast at the hotel before we depart and make our way home. A stop in Bloomington to tour the beautifully decorated Clover Lawn Mansion. Lunch at Michaels restaurant is included before we arrive back in the early evening.
